Fortified with spirit distilled from early-picked Baga by Mário Sárgio Alves Nuno at Quinta das Bageiras.

Originally a joint venture with Dirk Niepoort. Deep purple crimson. Spicy, smoky (from the copper still, suggests Filipa), with an smoky Islay cloak over the red fruit and a touch of iodine. Baga for whisky lovers! Long, smoky finish and delicious. I have no idea how this will develop in the bottle - either not changing much, or developing well, I suspect, but there is no need to wait.
